

Employee's Withholding Certificate

2020

- Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.
 - Give Form W-4 to your employer.
 - Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

Step 1: Enter Personal Information	(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
	Address
	City or town, state, and ZIP code
	(c) <input type="checkbox"/> Single or Married filing separately <input type="checkbox"/> Married filing jointly (or Qualifying widow(er)) <input type="checkbox"/> Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, when to use the online estimator, and privacy.

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works	Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs. Do only one of the following. (a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4); or (b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below for roughly accurate withholding; or (c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld ► <input type="checkbox"/>
	TIP: To be accurate, submit a 2020 Form W-4 for all other jobs. If you (or your spouse) have self-employment income, including as an independent contractor, use the estimator.

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependents	If your income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly): Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 ► $ _____ Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 ► $ _____ Add the amounts above and enter the total here
		3 $ _____
Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a) $ _____
	(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here	4(b) $ _____
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period	4(c) $ _____

Step 5: Sign Here	Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.
	Employee's signature (This form is not valid unless you sign it.)	Date
Employers Only	Employer's name and address	First date of employment	Employer identification number (EIN)

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2020 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2019 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2020. You had no federal income tax liability in 2019 if (1) your total tax on line 16 on your 2019 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 18a, 18b, and 18c), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2020 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 16, 2021.

Your privacy. If you prefer to limit information provided in Steps 2 through 4, use the online estimator, which will also increase accuracy.

As an alternative to the estimator: if you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c). If this is the only job in your household, you may instead check the box in Step 2(c), which will increase your withholding and significantly reduce your paycheck (often by thousands of dollars over the year).

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Have dividend or capital gain income, or are subject to additional taxes, such as the additional Medicare tax;
3. Have self-employment income (see below); or
4. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may instead check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

 Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. Step 3 of Form W-4 provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit and Credit for Other Dependents. You can also include other tax credits in this step, such as education tax credits and the foreign tax credit. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2020 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b) – Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3

1 $ _____

- 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.

- a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a

2a $ _____

- b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b

2b $ _____

- c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c

2c $ _____

- 3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc.

3 _____

- 4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld)

4 $ _____

Step 4(b) – Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2020 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040 or 1040-SR)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income

1 $ _____

- 2 Enter: { • $24,800 if you're married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er)
• $18,650 if you're head of household
• $12,400 if you're single or married filing separately }

2 $ _____

- 3 If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-"

3 $ _____

- 4 Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Part II of Schedule 1 (Form 1040 or 1040-SR)). See Pub. 505 for more information

4 $ _____

- 5 Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4

5 $ _____

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person with no other entries on the form; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

Driver Notice

Several texts and verbal notifications have gone out regarding Vin #'s, Damage Reports etc. This is to clearly STATE there will be ZERO exceptions on the following:

1. Vin# on unit is short (need last 8) you will NOT be paid for unit unless the correct Vin# is provided... No guessing of numbers!
2. Lost keys to units are 100% drivers responsibility to keep in there safe possession until unit is delivered. Lost keys to cars will be at drivers expense NOT Extreme Transportation Inc.

3. Inspections - drivers must do a complete inspection of vehicles. If Extreme Transportation Inc. receives a claim for such vehicles and the original documentation does NOT show a driver inspection it will be 100% of the drivers responsibility to pay for damaged vehicle. You all have been made aware of this policy time and time again. Our vendors expect and demand inspections of vehicles. Every military vehicle hauled must have the current mileage noted on paperwork. Truck #, Driver Name (Clearly Written) Date....

We are not out there with each and every one of you when you load. These all are considered drivers responsibility of transporting someone's vehicle. Please sign and return to office by fax, mail or email ASAP that you have read and understand notice.

Acknowledgment

- Introduction to BBSI. Your Worksite Employer is the company or organization where you report to work and/or that supervises you. Your Worksite Employer has entered into a contract with Barrett Business Services, Inc. ("BBSI") to assist with human resources related matters, such as payroll and workers' compensation insurance. The term "Worksite Employee" refers to you.
- Your Worksite Employer. You acknowledge that your Worksite Employer, and not BBSI, is the Primary Employer for purposes of the services or work you perform and safety in the workplace. Your Worksite Employer retains control of the worksite, supervises and directs your day-to-day work activities, provides the facilities and furnishes the equipment and supplies for your work (including personal protective equipment, if any is required to perform your job duties), determines your work schedule, monitors your workload and productivity, ensures that you are properly trained to perform your job safely, ensures that you are covered by an effective Injury and Illness Prevention Program, and determines your rate of pay and job classification. You acknowledge that Worksite Employer, and not BBSI, receives the economic benefit of the services or work you perform. BBSI will take responsibility for certain administrative functions, as agreed upon between BBSI and your Worksite Employer.
- At-Will Status. Your employment relationship with Worksite Employer remains at-will, which means it can be terminated by you or Worksite Employer with or without cause and with or without advance notice, unless you have a written employment contract with Worksite Employer providing you with something other than at-will employment with Worksite Employer. Regardless of the nature of your employment relationship with Worksite Employer, your status with BBSI can be terminated with or without cause and with or without advance notice. If your employment relationship with Worksite Employer ends, your status with BBSI will also end at that time. However, if your Worksite Employer and BBSI end their contract with one another, thereby terminating your status with BBSI, that event alone would not result in the termination of your employment relationship with Worksite Employer.
- Worksite Employer Paid Time Off and Other Benefits. In the event that Worksite Employer maintains policies providing paid time off from work, such as vacation, sick leave, PTO, or paid leave for specific reasons such as pregnancy, Worksite Employer is solely responsible for funding or determining eligibility for benefits under such policies. BBSI does not provide, and has no policy providing, vacation or other paid time off benefits, except to the extent required by law. To the extent paid time off benefits are paid through BBSI's payroll, it is solely as an administrative service on behalf of Worksite Employer. Similarly, to the extent Worksite Employer provides other benefits pursuant to policies to which BBSI is not a party, such as severance pay, stock options, bonuses, profit sharing, retirement benefits, disability insurance, and so forth, Worksite Employer is solely responsible for providing such benefits (or procuring the benefits from third parties). To the extent state or local paid sick leave laws apply to you, Worksite Employer is responsible for providing such benefits both on behalf of Worksite Employer and on behalf of BBSI (to the extent BBSI has any obligations under such laws). By providing examples of potential Worksite Employer benefits, this Acknowledgment does not create any right to such benefits or imply that any such benefits exist.

5. Discrimination, Harassment and Other Unlawful Treatment. If you feel that you have been subjected to discrimination, harassment, retaliation, denied a legally-mandated leave, or experienced other unlawful treatment in your employment, or if you require an accommodation to perform the essential functions of your job and/or for your religious beliefs or observances, immediately contact your supervisor or another member of management at your Worksite Employer. If you do not feel comfortable contacting anyone at Worksite Employer, or if you feel that Worksite Employer has not adequately addressed your concerns, notify BBSI immediately. The accommodations referenced herein include, but are not limited to, lactation accommodation. Unlawful discrimination, harassment, and retaliation are defined and discussed in separate policies that have been provided to you. Please be certain you read and understand those policies. If such written policies are not yet available to you at a time when you need to review and understand your entitlements, obligations, and rights with regard to these subjects, contact BBSI for assistance.
6. Wage and Hour Compliance. Although BBSI processes the payroll for your compensation and may assist Worksite Employer with other administrative matters involving your compensation, only your Worksite Employer is able to ensure that: your hours of work are all captured and reported correctly for payment; you are classified correctly as exempt or non-exempt; you are paid overtime if overtime is applicable to you; you are reimbursed for reasonable work-related expenses; and you receive the breaks to which you may be entitled. You agree that Worksite Employer has sole control of these topics, and that therefore Worksite Employer is solely responsible for any claims you may have related to these topics.
7. Accidents and Injuries. Immediately report work related injuries or accidents, or unsafe working conditions to your supervisor, and contact BBSI if the situation is not timely addressed by your supervisor. You should immediately stop working if you feel your work area is unsafe. Additionally, if you are assigned work that you reasonably believe to be dangerous, you may refuse to do that work, and you should contact your supervisor or BBSI. Worksite Employer and BBSI reserve the right to require post-accident/post-injury drug and alcohol screening when permitted by law. Refer to the applicable drug and alcohol policy for more information on drug and alcohol screening.
8. Alcohol and Drug Testing. In the discretion of your Worksite Employer, you may be tested for Drugs (as defined below) and/or alcohol to the full extent permitted by the law of the state where you are employed, including but not limited to random, periodic, safety sensitive, post-accident, post-injury, and "cause" or "reasonable suspicion" testing. You may be suspended pending the results of the test. The conditions of the suspension will depend on the circumstances. Refusal to submit to drug and/or alcohol testing on a timely and cooperative basis, or tampering with the process or sample, will subject you to discipline up to and including termination. Possession, sale and/or use of drugs while on duty, during business travel, while operating a Worksite Employer owned vehicle, and/or while on Worksite Employer premises (or customer premises), is forbidden. Similarly, possession and/or consumption of alcoholic beverages, or being under the influence of alcohol, or having Drugs in your system, is prohibited in those same circumstances. For purposes of this policy, "Drugs" include unlawful substance, a lawful substance used or acquired unlawfully, and lawfully acquired and used drugs that may cause a safety hazard when used in conjunction with your job. An employee using prescription or over-the-counter drugs that may impair the employee's ability to safely perform the job, or affect the safety of others, must notify a supervisor immediately before starting or resuming work. In order to enforce this policy, the Worksite Employer reserves the right to conduct searches of Worksite Employer property, employees and/or personal property, and to implement other measures necessary to deter and detect violation of this policy. Failure to comply with these rules regarding drugs and alcohol will subject you to discipline up to and including termination.
9. Employee Expense Reimbursements. Although BBSI may disperse expense reimbursements related to your work for your Worksite Employer, your Worksite Employer is solely responsible for determining the amount of reimbursement owed and administering all expense reimbursement programs and policies. BBSI's only role with respect to expense reimbursement is disbursement of the funds provided by Worksite Employer in amounts determined by Worksite Employer.
10. Other Worksite Employer Policies. Your Worksite Employer will have other rules, policies and procedures you must follow. If you have any questions about those items, please consult your supervisor or another member of management at your Worksite Employer. It is your responsibility to remain informed regarding changes or updates in rules, policies, and procedures.
11. Agreement. Your signature below confirms that you understand, acknowledge, and agree to the terms, conditions, facts, and policies set forth in this document. This document is not a contract for continued employment nor does it guarantee the provision of any set benefit or wage. This Acknowledgment supersedes any prior verbal or written promises or discussions regarding the subjects set forth herein. Should any term or provision of this Acknowledgment, or portion thereof, be declared void or unenforceable it shall be severed and the remainder of this Acknowledgment shall be enforceable. The terms of this Acknowledgment may only be changed in writing, by an authorized representative of BBSI.

Employee Acknowledgement of the Medical Provider Network

In order to provide the most timely and suitable quality medical care in the event of an injury on the job, we have instituted a Medical Provider Network for Workers' Compensation purposes.

The following procedures must be followed for all work related injuries and illnesses.

- Report promptly any work related injury to the supervisor.
- For a referral to a medical provider specialist, contact your employer or claims adjuster.
- Ensure all medical treatment is handled only through the MPN (Medical Provider Network) unless otherwise authorized.
- Direct all questions about the level of care to the PCP (Primary Care Physician), who is the focal point for all medical treatment.
- A directory of medical care providers is available at my request through my employer.

Please sign below to indicate that you have read and understand the procedures to follow in the event of an injury and your duties under our Medical Provider Network.

Notification to the Workers' Compensation Insurance Fraud Division

The law requires that BBSI notify the Workers' Compensation Insurance Fraud Division of any concerns of false or fraudulent claims.

Any person who makes or causes to be made any knowingly false or fraudulent material statement or material misrepresentation for the purpose of obtaining or denying workers' compensation benefits or payments is guilty of a felony and may be fined and imprisoned.

A violation of this law is punishable by imprisonment for one to five years, or by a fine not exceeding $150,000 or double the value of the fraud, whichever is greater, or both imprisonment and fine. Additional civil penalties may be in order.

BBSI will pursue every suspected case of workers' compensation fraud, and will prosecute to the fullest extent of the law.

Form W-4 (2017)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2017 expires February 15, 2018. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note: If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you can't claim exemption from withholding if your total income exceeds $1,050 and includes more than $350 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Exceptions. An employee may be able to claim exemption from withholding even if the employee is a dependent, if the employee:

- Is age 65 or older,
- Is blind, or
- Will claim adjustments to income; tax credits; or itemized deductions, on his or her tax return.

The exceptions don't apply to supplemental wages greater than $1,000,000.

Basic instructions. If you aren't exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2017. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted at www.irs.gov/w4.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person who claims no withholding allowances; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

EMPLOYEE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT FORM

I have reviewed and understand the Drug and Alcohol Policy. I understand that the Policy will apply to me if I am hired and that compliance with it is a condition of employment my Worksite Employer.

I also understand that I will have to take and pass a drug test for illegal or controlled substances such as (but not limited to) marijuana, cocaine, methamphetamines, amphetamines, and opiates if I want to be hired. If I am hired, I understand that I may be subject to testing as set forth in the Drug and Alcohol Policy, including, but not limited to, testing on a random basis (if applicable and only as legally permissible), after accidents, and if and when the Company or Client concludes that there is reasonable suspicion to believe that I am using, possessing or impaired by drugs or alcohol while I am working, present on Company or Client premises, on Company or Client business, in Company or Client uniform, or while on Company or Client travel (including when I am driving a Company, Client or personal vehicle for work-related purposes).

I understand that I will be subject to discharge if I refuse to cooperate in any of the tests identified in the Drug and Alcohol Policy, fail sufficiently to explain any positive test result to the Company's Medical Review Officer, or otherwise violate the Drug and Alcohol Policy. I also understand that I will not be eligible for hire if I refuse to sign this Acknowledgement Form.

If I am hired, I will abide by the terms of the Drug and Alcohol Policy during my employment with my Worksite Employer.

EMPLOYMENT-AT-WILL AND ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

1. I acknowledge that my employment, position, and compensation at EXTREME TRANSPORTATION (the "Company") are at-will, shall be for no specific duration, and may be changed or terminated at the will of the Company. Both I and the Company have the right to terminate my employment at any time, with or without cause or prior notice. By signing below, I certify that I understand that employment at-will is the sole and entire agreement between myself and the Company concerning the duration of my employment and the circumstances under which my employment may be terminated. It supersedes all prior agreements, understandings, and representations (whether written or oral) concerning the duration of my employment with the Company and/or the circumstances under which my employment may be terminated. My employment-at-will status may only be changed in a written document signed by the President of the Company.

2. I and the Company agree to utilize binding individual arbitration as the sole and exclusive means to resolve all disputes that may arise out of or be related in any way to my employment, including but not limited to the termination of my employment and my compensation. I and the Company each specifically waive and relinquish our respective rights to bring a claim against the other in a court of law. Both I and the Company agree that any claim, dispute, and/or controversy that I may have against the Company (or its owners, directors, officers, managers, employees, or agents), or the Company may have against me, shall be submitted to and determined exclusively by binding arbitration under the Federal Arbitration Act ("FAA"), in conformity with the procedures of the California Arbitration Act (Cal. Code Civ. Proc. sec 1280 et seq., including section 1283.05 and all of the Act's other mandatory and permissive rights to discovery). The FAA applies to this Agreement because the Company's business involves interstate commerce. Included within the scope of this Agreement are all disputes, whether based on tort, contract, statute (including, but not limited to, any claims of discrimination, harassment and/or retaliation, whether they be based on the California Fair Employment and Housing Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, or any other state or federal law or regulation), equitable law, or otherwise. The only exception to the requirement of binding arbitration shall be for claims arising under the National Labor Relations Act which are brought before the National Labor Relations Board, claims for medical and disability benefits under the California Workers' Compensation Act, Employment Development Department claims, or other claims that are not subject to arbitration under current law. However, nothing herein shall prevent me from filing and pursuing proceedings before the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing, or the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (although if I choose to pursue a claim following the exhaustion of such administrative remedies, that claim would be subject to the provisions of this Agreement). By this binding arbitration provision, I acknowledge and agree that both the Company and I give up our respective rights to trial by jury of any claim I or the Company may have against the other.

3. All claims brought under this binding arbitration Agreement shall be brought in the individual capacity of myself or the Company. This binding arbitration Agreement shall not be construed to allow or permit the consolidation or joinder of other claims or controversies involving any other employees or parties, or permit such claims or controversies to proceed as a class or collective action. No arbitrator shall have the authority under this agreement to order any such class or collective action. By signing this agreement, I am agreeing to waive any substantive or procedural rights that I may have to bring an action on a class or collective basis.

4. In addition to any other requirements imposed by law, the arbitrator selected to hear claims under this Agreement shall be a retired California Superior Court Judge, or an otherwise qualified individual to whom the parties mutually agree, and shall be subject to disqualification on the same grounds as would apply to a judge of such court. All rules of pleading (including the right of demurrer), all rules of evidence, all rights to resolution of the dispute by means of motions for summary judgment, judgment on the pleadings, and judgment under Code of Civil Procedure Section 631.8 shall apply and be observed. The arbitrator shall have the immunity of a judicial officer from civil liability when acting in the capacity of an arbitrator, which immunity supplements any other existing immunity. Likewise, all communications during or in connection with the arbitration proceedings are privileged in accordance with Cal. Civil Code Section 47(b). As reasonably required to allow full use and benefit of this agreement's modifications to the Act's procedures, the arbitrator shall extend the times set by the Act for the giving of notices and setting of hearings. Awards shall include the arbitrator's written reasoned opinion. Resolution of all disputes shall be based solely upon the law governing the claims and defenses pleaded, and the arbitrator may not invoke any basis (including but not limited to, notions of "just cause") other than such controlling law.

5. This is the entire agreement between myself and the Company regarding dispute resolution, the length of my employment, and the reasons for termination of my employment, and this agreement supersedes any and all prior agreements regarding these issues. Oral representations or agreements made before or after my employment do not alter this Agreement. If any term, provision or portion of this Agreement is determined to be void or unenforceable it shall be severed and the remainder of this Agreement shall be fully enforceable.

MY SIGNATURE BELOW ATTESTS TO THE FACT THAT I HAVE READ, UNDERSTAND, AND AGREE TO BE LEGALLY BOUND TO ALL OF THE ABOVE TERMS. I FURTHER UNDERSTAND THAT THIS AGREEMENT REQUIRES ME TO ARBITRATE ANY AND ALL DISPUTES THAT ARISE OUT OF MY EMPLOYMENT.

DO NOT SIGN UNTIL YOU HAVE READ THE ABOVE ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND AGREEMENT.
